

*Congratulations to you for almost completing the Fall semester of Chinese studies at AGWCS.
Learning Chinese is a great commitment, which requires continuous learning to not forget what you've worked hard to retain.*

Tips for keeping up with your Chinese

1. On a daily basis, spend 30 minutes reviewing what you have learned in school.
2. On a weekly basis, devote 1-1.5 hours getting help from your Chinese tutor.
3. On a weekly basis, work on a specifically designed Chinese Testing/Reviewing homework.

Chinese Language Tutoring NOW available during Winter Break 2006!

Who: Any one who wants to learn Chinese either to polish your Chinese for an advanced level or for brushing up your current study.
